

CNH is currently looking for an engineer to fill a recent vacancy in the Cotton Platform. This individual will initially be working with me in the round baler group and then be transitioning into a position on the cotton engineering team. We are aggressively trying to fill this position (preferably someone who can start immediately). Please forward this to any prospective candidates that might be interested. They can apply by following the this link (CNH Posting).